Thanks To One And All From The Raymond Chamber of Commerce

The July 1st Dominion Day activities at Raymond, including the Parade, the Stampede and the Dances, with all the crowds that attended, constituted one of the most successful celebrations of Raymond Town Birthday ever held. These affairs were all organized by the Raymond Chamber of Commerce.

We now desire to extend publicly to each and all those fine workers and service volunteers our thanks for the parts they everyone played, in this community effort.

It would be unfair, perhaps, to single out any individuals, but sincere thanks are due to those who, prepared the grounds, organized the parade, built the floats and exhibits and to those who volunteered for service during the stampede and the dances.

Men of the Town Council, of the Service Groups, representatives of many organizations, the cowboys and entertainers all did their share. Together there was a demonstration of that public spirit, which makes Raymond a good place to live.

Those who attended these celebrations were well repaid and satisfied with our hospitable atmosphere. They will all come back with their friends.

Quoting Lowell: "No man is born into the world, whose work is not born with him. There is always work and tools to work with, for those who will; and blessed are the hands of toil."

Yours very truly,
RAYMOND
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
Heber F. Allen, President

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Nilsson and Mr. and Mrs. Wes McMullen motored to Edmonton over the week-end where the Nilssons visited Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jones, and the McMullens visited Robert McMullen.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Hirsche had as their guests on Tuesday the Farrel Nelsons and Boyd Hirsches of Stirling. Mrs. Hazel Hirsche and family of Wrentham, Mrs. Ila Schaeffer and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morton of Warner, Roy McIntosh of Lethbridge and Alma Schaeffer from Seattle, Washington.

Elder Brewerton Tells Of South America

One of the least known countries but most excellent for its size is the Republic of Uruguay, located south of Brazil, beside Argentina on South America's south-eastern coast. I hope to be able to acquaint the reader of this newspaper with this friendly, advancing country at least to a small extent because it is very worthy of attention.

First it is only 1/5 the area of Alberta but has about 2 1/2 million inhabitants, most of whom are of Spanish or Italian descent, Spanish being the only language spoken.

Due to its pleasant California like climate flowers of numerous types are grown in abundance, especially in its capital city of 3 1/2 million people, Montevideo. This city will be known to most of you as the spot where the Germans scuttled the "Graf Spee" after a running sea battle with three British cruisers in 1940.

The educational system is one of the finest in S. A. having free University as well as secondary schools; the cultural level of those who avail themselves of these educational opportunities is as high as can be found, unfortunately some in the interior of Uruguay are illiterate as no schools were located near their homes.

Dr. and Mrs. Harlan Taylor returned last week from a very enjoyable visit in Salt Lake and surrounding points with Harlan's brother Willis and family.

Mrs. Goodridge of Provo, Utah returned to Raymond with them for a visit with her son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor.

Lois Still - Dean Tillack Wed In Alberta Temple

On June 18, in the Alberta Temple Lois Still, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Still, became the bride of Dean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Tillack of Stirling. Pres. Cahoon officiated.

A gown of white brocade satin with a nylon net yoke, and long lily point sleeves was chosen by the bride who carried a bouquet of red roses and white carnations. Her nylon net floor length veil cascaded from a matching headdress.

Marolyn Christensen as Maid of Honor and Marolyn Tillack, Wylene Fisher and Eleanor Smith Bridesmaids wore headresses of yellow roses and pastel colored gowns to which were pinned white carnations corsages. Mrs. Still chose a blue silk frock for her daughter's wedding and the groom's mother chose grey silk. Both wore pink carnation corsages.

Jim Still was his brothers Best Man.

Relatives and friends from Lethbridge, Cardston, McLeod, Stirling and Sask. as well as Raymond called at the Stake House at 7:30 to wish the newly weds happiness. Donna Smith and Evelyn Christensen accepted and arranged the many gifts while Penny Tillack presided at the Guest Book.

A dainty lunch was served by girls from the Jr. Gleaner Class as the guests arrived and mesdames Francis Steveson, Leona Palmer, Leona Bakken, Cella Viola, Marcia Richardson, Amelia Heartley were those working behind the scenes. A lovely three tiered wedding cake graced the Brides Table which was decorated with peonies and columbine.

Jim Heninger was Master of Ceremonies for the program consisting of a Reading by Ruth Ackroyd; two solos by Jeanine Jensen. Piano solo by Jetta Howard. A Reading by Mrs. Christensen of Stirling and a short talk by Bishop Hicken.

Mrs. Tillack wore a black taffeta dress and white accessories complemented by a corsage of pink carnations for the honeymoon trip to the US. They will make their home in Manitoba where the groom is stationed with the R. C. A. F.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brewerton had as their guests this week, Mrs. Brewerton's sister, Mrs. Margaret Swanson of Lethbridge, and a brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kimball Fisher of Salt Lake.

They were also visitors at the Louis Fisher home.

Bert Leavitt joined his wife in town Saturday for a visit at the home of Mrs. Emma Dahl before returning to his station.

On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Leavitt motored to Waterton where they met Mr. and Mrs. Jack Humphries for a holiday together.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Scott of Vancouver B. C. spent part of this week in Raymond visiting at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Turner and Mr. and Mrs. K. S. Turner. While here they attended their first Stampede and took movies of this to show their friends at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Reinold Thur of Cardston were guests at the Ezra Christensen home on Dominion Day.

First Chamber of Commerce Stampede Is Big Success

The Chamber of Commerce in general and the small group of men comprising the Stampede Committee in particular are to be highly commended for the splendid job they accomplished in staging the Stampede and Race Meet on Monday and Tuesday.

Things started off with a successful bang Monday evening when some of the top flight members of the rodeo game were present at the Chutes and Corral to put on a thrilling show. Those present thought their money well-spent as they witnessed the usual thrills and spills coupled with some very funny but unrehearsed actions of the cowpokes as they flew through the air to bite the dust—a quite a bit of which was blown around by the rather stiff breeze.

Tuesday was the big day for everyone. The parade in the morning has been decided by many as the best ever staged in Raymond. As it stretched its almost mile-long length down the street the crowd did almost enough cheering and a lot of picture-taking. The judging had already been done and many people were disappointed in the fact that the prize cards were not displayed prominently enough. The suggestion that in the next parade the people who go to so much work to decorate their floats, cars etc. should display their name or sponsor to better advantage, is one with great merit.

Probably the most unusual entry in the parade was the team of oxen driven by the Boy Scouts. They are owned by Clarence Allred who "assisted" the Scouts in the training of Jack and Jerry, or as they are now known "The Oxen of a 1000 Pictures". The oxen in the parade on Tuesday were the first seen by many. Mr. Allred says that he hopes there will be twice as many people here next year because there are plans afoot to have twice as many ox teams in the parade. Another feature was the old Red Band Wagon—it

Mr. and Mrs. Orson Anderson and family were thrilled to be all together this week for the first time in nearly nine years. On Dominion Day Mr. and Mrs. David Vance, who have moved here from Calgary, Leo of Rosemary, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Bigelow, Venita and Marguerite, Mary and Louise enjoyed a family outing at the Pot Hole.

Homer and Donald Lellaton of Barnwell and Vivian Hill of Taber were also present.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Baker left this week for California where they plan to make their new home.

Her many friends will be glad to learn that Mrs. Geneva Larsen is up and around again after her recent operations. She is now spending a little time back at the store and says she is feeling pretty good.

We have at last experienced the joy of not having enough space for all the news and stories we have. What you don't find in this issue will be in the next.

has been a part of Raymond's parade for so long that it is now considered an essential.

After the great throng had their feast of beauty (and humor) at the parade, and their fill of "grub" elsewhere they proceeded to pack themselves into the grandstand, bleachers, enclosure and anywhere else they could find to witness more of Southern Alberta's greatest show.

After the dust had all cleared and the points tallied, the winner of the Saddle Bronc Riding was Joe Keeler of Calgary. Bob Duce of Cardston won the Bareback Bronc Riding event and D. Adams of Raymond won the Boys' Amateur Steer Riding Contest. The Calf Roping Championship was won by F. C. Stover of Tularosa, N. M. with Carl Olsen copping the Wilde Steer Decorating Contest. The Boy's Amateur Saddle Bronc Riding was won on both days by Dale Still and crew of Raymond with Byron Hirsche and crew of Raymond taking second money in the final day.

Gerald Harker, Linda Maine with Morris Heggie up, raced off with the plum of the Race Meet by winning the Businessmen's Derby. In the three quarter mile open race Mel Depew and Dean Garner were the owners of the first two horses. Mel's horse placed third in the one-quarter mile open and also in the five eighths mile race.

Morris Heggie and Gerald McGilvary rode their ponies to the first and third places, respectively, in the Boys Pony Race to bring to an end another glorious celebration of Raymond's and Canada's birthday.

Prizes and trophies were awarded at the Cowboy Ball held in the Opera House.

The Stampede Committee are pleased with the results of the two day affair and express their appreciation to one and all.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Tollestrup and Sam were visitors in Grassy Lake on Thursday where they visited their son Emerson.

Mr. and Mrs. Arledge Hill had as their guests on Dominion Day Mr. and Mrs. Bill Murphy and family of Taber, Mr. and Mrs. John Hill, Evan Hill and Chub Nelson of Stirling.

Margurite and Florence Graham came down from Calgary to spend the holiday with their folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronda Dahl have had visiting them their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest (Janet) Zobrist of Boise, Idaho and their two children Christine and Mark.

Last Friday night the home of Dr. and Mrs. Bingham was the scene of a get-together of many friends and relatives of the families of J. U. and C. E. Allred of old times and watching the beautiful selection of slides shown by Orson.

United Church News

The Sunday School held an open session in the chapel at its closing service for the summer. The dust "It Is No Secret," sang by Fay Attwood and Dick McKean, was enjoyed by all. Ray Attwood with his parting remarks to the children, spoke highly of their attendance and asked that they be as faithful and cooperative during Don Petrak's term as superintendent. Frazer Grant, Margaret, Norma and Clark Dainard receive two year perfect attendance buttons. Marlene Wilde and Dick McKean receive one year buttons.

Following benediction Mr. Attwood met with teachers and presented each with a small gift in appreciation of the cooperation received during his three years as Superintendent.

Sunday School will not open until September.

A large number attended church service for Mr. Ward's farewell sermon. Need we mention again that he will be greatly missed in our community, but our good wishes follow him to his new field at Stony Plains.

Church service will resume again August 3rd, with Rev. Howard Pentland B. A. of Toronto in charge. Rev. Pentland is spending the holiday month of July at the coast where he is taking up duties in the Chaplaincy Branch of the Royal Canadian Navy at Esquimalt. Induction services for Rev. Pentland will be held in Magrath United Church Friday August 1st, at 8 p.m. with Rev. McKelvie of Milk River and Rev. Johnson, Cardston in charge. The congregation is asked to keep this date in mind and be present to welcome Rev. and Mrs. Pentland to this pastoral charge.

The congregation feels amply repaid for its work in the booth at the Stampede Grounds, June 30th and July 1st and the committee in charge wish (continued on page three)

The Taylor Stake Mia Maids enjoyed a full day of fun on Saturday at the Stake House. Deck Tennis, Badminton and Table Tennis were played after which lunch was served by the Stake Board.

A short program was presented by the girls consisting of the following numbers: Piano solo by Nola Bohnet; Mia Maid Chorus from the third Ward and a Reading by Lyn Galbraith with the concluding number a Kitchen Band from the Second Ward.

The Joe Keelers, Gordon Andersons and Max and I enjoyed a delicious cold chicken supper at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Harlan Taylor Tuesday evening. The remainder of the evening was spent chatting and playing Canasta.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lawson of Lethbridge were guests at the W. K. Christensen home on Tuesday.

An Open Letter To Raymond Citizens

The Mayor and Council wish to take this opportunity of expressing their extreme appreciation for the excellent support given in putting over the Dominion Day Celebration.

The Parade was one of the best and we wish to compliment the Rotary Club and the Chairman of the Parade itself for their very efficient management of this affair. To the Chamber of Commerce and the Stampede Committee we also are grateful. The Parade and the Stampede portion served a need which benefited the entire southern part of Alberta.

In as much as Dominion Day has been Raymond's day and the thousands of people who visited the town annually seemed all satisfied with the entertainment provided, we are particularly appreciative of the efforts of the general public in supporting the Parade Committee in providing floats, cars, bicycles, novelties and the many other miscellaneous entries. All these go to make up a celebration.

Dominion Day being Raymond's only holiday we feel that it was entirely successful from the standpoint of enlivening community spirit and providing a place for all Southern Albertans and Raymond's returning relatives and friends to enjoy a real celebration. Raymond's birthday and the founding of the Dominion.

Yours very sincerely,

RAYMOND'S MAYOR AND COUNCIL

Mr. and Mrs. Athol Cooper and family spent the week-end in Rosemary where they visited at the Harold, Eugene and Herman Ockey homes.

They also visited briefly in Calgary while away.

Audrey and Barbara Ockey returned with them for a holiday in Raymond.

Arthur Dahl of Cardston, who will be celebrating his 85th birthday in September, was among those enjoying the Stampede here this week. Mr. Dahl is one of the old timers in this district and has attended practically every Raymond Stampede since its inception.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Dahl entertained at a dinner party for Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Zobrist and Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Leishman of Magrath as well as the Ronda Dahls on Wednesday. A very enjoyable visit was had by all.

Mrs. Myron Holmes was hostess to the Ladies Literary Society Wednesday, June 25th at her beautiful farm home.

An enjoyable afternoon was spent when Mrs. Zettella Taylor, who recently accompanied her husband, Mayor Frank Taylor, on a business trip to the Canadian Sugar Co's Sugar Cane Plantation in the West Indies, gave an interesting travelogue of their trip. Several souvenirs brought back with them were on display and colored slides were shown. Miss Carolyn Taylor assisting her mother.

The plantation is situated on the Island of Haiti on the Ozama River in the Dominican Republic and is ten miles from Trujillo its Capital City. The pictures were colored and depicted not only the cane and harvesting of the Sugar Cane but the lives, customs and homes of the native inhabitants who work on the plantation.

Places of interest in Florida, Cuba and Jamaica, visited by Mr. and Mrs. Taylor enroute were mentioned.

During the social hour a tasty lunch was served by Mrs. Holmes. Those present included sixteen members and three visitors, Mrs. LaVern Anderson, Mrs. Della Woolfe and Miss Carolyn Taylor.

Hear Ye! Hear Ye!

Look at the top right-hand corner of the front page of this newspaper.

If the words "Subscription Due" are there we would appreciate your informing us as to your desires — if you want the paper we want to send it to you — your credit is good. Of course we would sincerely appreciate getting paid for it now but if you find it more convenient to pay after while that can be arranged.

Anyone who is receiving the paper now who does not want it please hand the next issue back to the Postmaster and we will stop sending it to you.

We realize that money is not too plentiful right now but we are required to pay for our stock and cannot do so without financial support of our subscribers. A single subscription of $2.50 does not sound too important in itself but multiply it by 200 and that amount will go a long way to helping take care of our obligations.

For the convenience of our readers — and others — we are trying to canvass the town for subscriptions but that is a big job so we would appreciate it greatly if you would give us your assistance by sending or bringing in the price of your subscription.

Yours sincerely,

Max and Roxie.

THE NEW RAYMOND RECORDER

TED'S TRIP

The country thrives on its cattle, sheep and wool production being virtually their only source of income because of lack of industries or natural resources. I might add that Politics is very prominent in the lives of all. Nine presidents, a senate and representative house compose the government, being one of the freest and most liberal of all governments. They are enemies to all religions, but protect the rights of all. Due to this democracy, the L. D. S. church has progressed with virtually little opposition.

Uruguay is known as the Switzerland of America because of its very stable monetary system, but even though its money is good there is insufficient to supply even the richer people with such things as an electric washer, refrigerator and other home comforts, most families have maids to do all the work as they demand small wages, ($10-$15 a month).

Again, it is a small country nevertheless they have the world's championship in football (soccer type) and have had for many years. England taught them how to play and now it. Britain takes lessons.

The Uruguayans don't have or want too much to do with the war but harbor a very supporting and friendly attitude toward the U. N.

Naturally many interesting very distinct customs are found in the friendly vacationland land such as their ten substitute "mate", an herb held in a gourd filled full of hot water and sucked through a silver straw. An average person will spend 3-4 hours daily taking this. The "Gaucho" is the most typical thing of Uruguay, or the Argentine Pampas and is known for his distinctive dress, pistol, knife, five piece saddle, and the quantity of meat consumed, these people are the world's highest meat consumers.

Every person from one to ninety (without exaggeration) spends from November to April on the many beautiful beaches along the coast. Due to the many beach resorts, this land of the sun attracts tourists from all over the globe.

This has been a brief inadequate description of Uruguay but space doesn't permit details.

I should like to mention the work we were engaged in for over 2 1/2 years as it now forms an integral part of many Urugayan lives.

The mission is less than five years of age to this date but due to the democratic constitution, and its truth seeking people, it has been one of the church's most fruitful mission fields. Twenty-five branches are located throughout the country, including two in Asuncion Paraguay. Once the adverse feelings of the people caused by misleading and incorrect statements were changed progress became very evident. Erroneous ideas such as mormon spies paid by the American government and mormon wife seekers quickly gave way to the truth, and even many radio stations asked us to present music, English classes and gospel talks continually. It is needless to say it was a pleasure to present God's true philosophy to a people who did not know of it and watch happiness enter into their lives and their lives enriched and advanced.

Our trip to S. A. went from New York to Rio de Janeiro, Santos and Sao Paulo Brazil which was very eventful, but our return was even more so. After spending several weeks in Buenos Aires and other Argentine points we travelled by bus, air, boat and car through Paraguay, Brazil and Bolivia during its revolution.

But without speaking of those very interesting sights, I'd like to mention that the two weeks we spent in Peru were the most colorful and eventful. We had the privilege of investigating, studying and touring the head of the Incan empire and taking movies of its ruins. Of course the most interesting was comparing the Indian legends, customs and beliefs with our Book of Mormon which of course was very favorable. The skill, dexterity and intelligence of these former Nephites is too amazing to write or speak of, one must see to appreciate it. I consider the experience of a mission for the church of Jesus Christ of L. D. S. to be a necessity in the lives of everyone, young, old, married, single, rich or poor, first for the edification of God's kingdom and also to gain a greater appreciation for a wonderful earth on which much joy can be found.

I thank you Max for sending me this informative paper while I was away and for this opportunity.

FOR PARENTS ONLY

By Nancy Cleaver

"Another drowning accident in tonight's paper! A three year old was playing with a toy boat on the far end of a dock at a summer cottage. He must have lost his balance and fallen in. No one heard him call —"

"But why wasn't his mother watching him?"

"She thought he was having his afternoon nap in the pup tent he used as a playhouse. The paper says he must have wakened and gone out on the dock when no one was around —"

Every parent's heart goes out to a father or mother who loses a child. Several times each week, indeed every day in some weeks, drowning fatalities are reported in the daily press during the summer months. Watching little children is a twenty-four hour job, wherever they may be, and this is particularly true during the summer holidays. A youngster can be drowned so quickly.

The solution of the water safety problem is certainly not to scare a child into staying away from the water. Fear is no atmosphere to learn anything, including how to swim. A child should love the water and learn to be at home in it at as early an age as possible.

At the same time, he must be taught that water, like fire, must be treated with respect. It is a good friend if rules are followed, but it often rewards carelessness with terrible consequences. As a very little child, a boy or girl, must know that mother and daddy insist on obedience to water safety regulations.

The swimming and boating routine at any good youth camp can guide parents in forming sensible rules. These regulations are usually posted up at camp and can be read on any Visitor's Day. The campers certainly know them! Post up your family rules at your cottage and go over them one by one at a Family Council.

Ignorance is no excuse for breaking a water safety rule, and it is a parent's duty to teach children water safety before they can read. In most camps any infraction of a swimming rule brings immediate cancellation of a swimming period. Not a bad plan for family swims! On a hot day, indeed on any day because "Swim Time" is a major event, not to be allowed in the water is a terrible disappointment.

No one should swim until one and a half to two hours after eating. No one should ever enter the water alone. If there are several children in the family, use the Buddy System. Swim in pairs, with each "buddy" responsible at all times for the whereabouts of his partner. A parent or capable adult must always supervise the swimming time which must be at a set time and within a definite area.

The length of this swim period varies according to the age and health of the children, the temperature of the water and the kind of day it is — sunny, or cool and windy. Never let a child become exhausted or chilled by too long a time in the water. They never want to come out — they love it so! But it is the task of the person in charge to keep the swimmers free from fatigue and illness as well as safe from accidents.

Other children visiting your youngsters, who want to stay during your swimming time, must ask permission from their parents and observe your rules. If parents know each other well and agree on the same safety precautions, they can work out a plan of taking turns at supervision. If this is followed, they should not have to watch too many youngsters.

"The die has now been cast"

An American manufacturer was planning to open a plant in Canada. He considered various locations and found what seemed a likely site. He talked to a local bank manager, got facts about the community and its facilities. Some time later the company wrote to the banker:

"The die has now been cast. It is our intention to locate in S... We feel that it is well suited to our particular operation. You have been of great aid to us. Your accurate and rapid presentation of facts necessary to reach a decision was top-notch."

Such letters show how a branch bank serves not only its own depositors and other customers but how, by assisting business development, it benefits the whole community.

Sometimes a parent has trouble with a visitor ducking a small youngster in fun and giving the small child a nasty scare. No "horse play" in the water is a sensible rule.

Occasionally children want to swim in unfamiliar water. Better stick to a swimming place you know, with no holes or submerged rocks or logs, or sudden drop in the bottom of the lake or river. When on a picnic or motor trip, find the safe community or park swimming spots, and use them. Discourage long distance swims on the part of small youngsters, and never allow one unaccompanied by a boat.

A whistle is an asset to a parent looking after the children's swim. Make sure that every child knows that no one can go swimming until mother or father is on the dock or beach and one long blast is blown. Use the signal of two short blasts for each child to grab his buddy's hands—and blow these two blasts two or three times during the swimming period. Use three short blasts of the whistle as a warning that in three minutes everyone must come promptly out of the water, then three long blasts for "Everyone Out!" Make very sure the whistle is obeyed. You might have to use it in an emergency when tardiness might endanger a child's life!

to thank the general public who supported them so generously, and also the Chamber of Commerce who allowed them to have a concession. A special thanks is extended to those of our members who were in charge of ordering and delivering supplies as well as to all those who worked to make this venture a financial success. The proceeds will be used in aid of the Building Fund and we hope that work will soon commence on the recreation hall. If you are a carpenter or electrician or a painter or just a man with a hammer and have time to donate your services at any time please contact Pete Vanderhill, the chairman of the Building Fund or Bill Attwood, chairman of the local church board.

Faye Attwood is leaving shortly for Naramata B. C. where she will take a course in the Christian Leadership Training School where Rev. Bob McLaren is principal. This school is open to young people over 18, teachers, laymen, and ministers of every denomination. For the summer session the school has secured as lecturer, Dr. Stewart Allan, recently returned from internment in Communist China. We hope that Faye will feel well repaid for the time spent and will continue her work along this line.
